Year 1 Maths is everywhere

Attached there are eight challenges to try at home- all practical. There are only five days this time, so you could do more than one in a day or choose the five that you will be able to do this week.

Snakes and Ladders task – if you don't have this board game you could make your own or use another game that uses a dice.

Have fun mathematicians ☺