SPELLING DAY 6

There are 10 Year 3 Spelling words that have been spelt incorrectly in the passage below.

1. Identify them by either underlining them in the text or writing them down.

2. Have a go at spelling the word correctly. If you're not sure, try writing the word a few times, trying different spellings. Use your fabulous phonics knowledge and then ask yourself 'does it look right'?

3. Check the words by looking at the next slide. If you got some wrong, write them each again 3 times, highlighting or underlining the tricky part.

It was just another Munday morning. Wunder Wooman was flying high abuv the city boundry when she saw her arch enemies, 'Dubble Trubble'. They were trying to take over the youniverse by creating a mega structure that would hold all the superheroes of the world prisoners. They were busy giving an instrucktshun to their slaves.

Correct Spelling	Practice 1	Practice 2	Practice 3
Monday Wonder Woman above boundary enemy Double Trouble universe instruction

SPELLING DAY 7

There are 10 Year 3 Spelling words that have been spelt incorrectly in the passage below.

1. Identify them by either underlining them in the text or writing them down.

2. Have a go at spelling the word correctly. If you're not sure, try writing the word a few times, trying different spellings. Use your fabulous phonics knowledge and then ask yourself 'does it look right'?

3. Check the words by looking at the next slide. If you got some wrong, write them each again 3 times, highlighting or underlining the tricky part.

Anuther new factory has opened in Whoopsville specialising in scoap equipment called New Perspektive. They make a special sort of periskope and a microscoape that can kompress into a really small case. Mr Whoops' cuzunn, Gerald, is the head of the Workers' Younion there. He can hold meetings if necessairee to make sure everybody is being treated well and that the salaree being paid is fair.

Correct Spelling	Practice 1	Practice 2	Practice 3
Another scope Perspective periscope microscope compress cousin Union necessary Salary

SPELLING DAY 8

There are 10 Year 3 Spelling words that have been spelt incorrectly in the passage below.

1. Identify them by either underlining them in the text or writing them down.

2. Have a go at spelling the word correctly. If you're not sure, try writing the word a few times, trying different spellings. Use your fabulous phonics knowledge and then ask yourself 'does it look right'?

3. Check the words by looking at the next slide. If you got some wrong, write them each again 3 times, highlighting or underlining the tricky part.

For his homework, my bruther had to write a sumarrey of the differences between the place value amounts: thousand, hundred, ten and yewnit. When he had finished, he decided to read the paper in the garden so he picked up the Sunday Expres and headed for the deckchairs where dad was already snoozing.

As he began to read his horosckope, a yung squirrel scrambled up the rouph bark of the tree trunk next to him. It leapt from tree to tree with moves that would imppress any Olympic gymnast!

At last, it came to rest on the handle of dad's shuvell. It began to overbalance and as it toppled over, it smashed dad's specttacles which he had left on the decking.

Correct Spelling	Practice 1	Practice 2	Practice 3
Brother Summary Unit Express Horoscope Young Rough Impress Shovel spectacles

SPELLING DAY 9

There are 8 Year 3 Spelling words that have been spelt incorrectly in the passage below.

1. Identify them by either underlining them in the text or writing them down.

2. Have a go at spelling the word correctly. If you're not sure, try writing the word a few times, trying different spellings. Use your fabulous phonics knowledge and then ask yourself 'does it look right'?

3. Check the words by looking at the next slide. If you got some wrong, write them each again 3 times, highlighting or underlining the tricky part.

Lily woke up and realised that it wasn't an ordinry day. It was her favrite day of the year. It was the 13th Febuary and it was her birthday! She was so excited to open all her presents and see her groop of friends come to her party. Lily and her friends played lots of party games and they ate a lot of food. For her birthday, Lily got a new bisickle, many new toys and games and a science experimunt kit. She felt so speshul and it was definitely a birthday to remembur.

Correct Spelling	Practice 1	Practice 2	Practice 3
ordinary favourite February group bicycle experiment special remember

SPELLING DAY 10

There are 8 Year 3 Spelling words that have been spelt incorrectly in the passage below.

1. Identify them by either underlining them in the text or writing them down.

2. Have a go at spelling the word correctly. If you're not sure, try writing the word a few times, trying different spellings. Use your fabulous phonics knowledge and then ask yourself 'does it look right'?

3. Check the words by looking at the next slide. If you got some wrong, write them each again 3 times, highlighting or underlining the tricky part.

Fancy a different day out? Why not considdur a trip to your local libree? It is the perfect place to pick up variuz books, to imajun yourself in a story, to lern lots of new and interesting facts and to enhance your noledge! Unfortunately, fewer people are choosing to visit libraries in modern times. It is importunt we use these wonderful places before they disapeer.

Correct Spelling	Practice 1	Practice 2	Practice 3
consider library various imagine learn knowledge important disappear			