Firebird Poem

I can write a descriptive poem using a famous poem as a model.

Using this poem as a model, write your own poem about the firebird.

The Owl

by Alfred, Lord Tennyson

When cats run home and light is come,
And dew is cold upon the ground,
And the far-off stream is dumb,
And the whirring sail goes round,
And the whirring sail goes round;
Alone and warming his five wits,
The white owl in the belfry sits.

When merry milkmaids click the latch,
And rarely smells the new-mown hay,
And the cock hath sung beneath the thatch
Twice or thrice his roundelay,
Twice or thrice his roundelay;
Alone and warming his five wits,
The white owl in the belfry sits.

Remember that:

Line 1 rhymes with line 3.

Line 2 doesn't rhyme with anything.

Line 3 rhymes with line 1.

Lines 4 and 5 are identical.

Lines 6 and 7 rhyme with each other.
