English home learning tasks for two weeks

We are going to focus on a traditional story called 'the firebird' for the next 2 weeks.

Monday 15th June – read the story and review it

Please read the digital version of the 'firebird' story.

Write your own book review about the story. You can use the sheet called 'book review' to help you – you don't need to print it out.

Tuesday 16th June – comprehension

Watch youtube https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eTNvN8fgzIE part 1 of the firebird.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BOFdTd7k6EE part 2

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3-vbovP2tKg part 3

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zAcEy3ypJRY part 4

This is really useful because there are questions to answer as you go along.

Now complete the sheet 'Chapter 4 comprehension.'

Finally watch https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IgwxKsu-8t4 part 5

Wednesday 17th June Characters

Complete the 'character profile' sheet.

Thursday 18th June poetry

Complete the 'firebird poetry' sheet

Friday 19th June poetry

Continue to complete the 'firebird poetry' sheet.

Monday 22nd June descriptive language

Complete the 'sensory description' sheet

Tuesday 23rd June possessive apostrophes

Complete 'revising possessive apostrophes' sheet then mark your work.

Wednesday 24th June suffixes and fronted adverbials

Have a go at the 'suffixes' sheet. Mark your work.

Have a go at the 'using fronted adverbials' sheet.

Thursday 25th June character

Complete the 'Vasily's thoughts' sheet

Friday 26th June

Complete the 'writing a precis' sheet

A precis is a summary of the text.

Well done!

Mrs Crockett ☺