

11th December 2012

Dear Parents

Berkhamsted Games 2012

I just wanted to share with you the final figures from the Berkhamsted Games 2012. The final amount of money raised was £35,556. Once all costs have been deducted, The Hospice will be receiving a cheque for £13,545 this Friday, in a special presentation, by the committee of Berkhamsted Games 2012.

This is a fantastic achievement by the whole community and will surely be a day that the children of Berkhamsted will remember forever. A particular big thanks needs to go to Louise Collins who chaired and steered the committee to achieving this fantastic goal.

I know many Greenway parents were heavily involved in the fund raising and played their part in buying iPad draw and raffle tickets, values wristbands, programmes, balloons and refreshments on the day and bidding in the online auction too! Those who volunteered as part of the Committee additionally gave their precious time and skills. They are all owed a very big 'thank you!'

Well done to everyone for taking part and contributing to such a great day.

Regards

Katharine Weston

Living the Olympic and Paralympic Values