

NO PENS DAY

Dear Parents/Carers,

On Wednesday 7th October 2015 Greenway School will be supporting 'No Pens Day.'

No Pens Day Wednesday is a National speaking and listening event organised by The Communication Trust.

Of all the skills we develop in school, the ability to communicate effectively is the one that has the most profound and potentially positive impact on our lives. Communication is at the core of what we do: in the home, in school, at work and socially.

Each class will 'put their pens down' and 'pick up their language' for at least one lesson on Wednesday 7th October. The lessons will be fun and engaging with a mixture of story-telling, role play and question and answer sessions. The children will be strengthening their communication and language skills through different curriculum activities.

More information on The Communication Trust and No Pens Day is available on their website.

Kind regards

Dani Roe
