- Lunch boxes – contents and allergies NO NUTS
- Water bottles – Every child should have one for access during the day. Please fill up at home. Water only.

Communication

Please write a note for:

- Informing the school of appointments or communicating any issues that arise
- Please speak to the class teacher or write a note to arrange a meeting about your child
- It is very important that you let us know of anything that may affect your child in school. If you should have any situations that arise that could affect the emotion of your child please also inform us. E.g. moving house, illness of close relatives, parent travelling and being away from home, etc.

Home learning

- There are no formal home learning tasks for children in Reception. We would suggest that you:-
- share story books with your child as often as possible
- use money when visiting the shop, weigh items when making cakes and find many practical ways of involving maths in daily life
- Play games involving taking turns, using dice and counting
- We will sometimes send ideas for activities for holiday, not homework to be returned.

Reading

- Children will be assessed before we begin our phonic lessons. They will be grouped but our groups are fluid and children may move into different groups during the year.
- As we progress through our phonic system, Read, Write, Inc, we will begin to send books home. We will inform you which sounds we are working on at intervals during the year.
- Please note in the Reading Record book when you have shared any books with your child as well as your child reading to you. (you will receive the Reading Record book with your child's first reading book)
- Your child will need to practice reading at home every day. Please write how they have read and sign the reading record. We will reward your child with house points for reading every day at home
- To begin with the books may have no text, please talk about the pictures and story with these books and model page turning, predicting what might happen next, etc.

Reading

- Your child will be listened to individually when they are assessed to move colour bands. We also listen to your child reading during literacy, phonics and through our themes.
- For further information please see our reading letter which is on our website.
- Later in the school year children will access guided reading sessions.
- Your child will then be part of a guided reading session once a week and we will communicate how your child has read and offer ideas on what to focus on next. This will be indicated in the reading record with this sign

Class representative

- Class representative – Each class has a representative to help the teacher organise parent help during the year and to sort the social side of your class.
- Red Ash class representative for is Mrs Jenkins
- If you change your mobile phone number or e-mail address then please let the office know (if you have not given either of these to the office please do so asap).
