To Parents,

Extreme Reading – World Book Day

Where is the most interesting place your child has ever read a book? Whether it is up a tree or on top of a mountain, we want your photos! Your challenge is to take a picture of your child reading somewhere extreme and send it in to school by Friday 23rd February. We are doing this as part of the school's celebration of World Book Day which is on 1st March 2018 this year.

We will run a competition for the most extreme places reading has taken place; a display will also be made from the photos. To help us with the display, please bring in a 5x7 or 6x4 size photo in an envelope addressed to me. On the envelope also please include the name of the child and class.

We are really looking forward to seeing who in school has such a passion for reading that they have to do it anywhere and everywhere!

Many thanks,

Mrs Russell
