Ashlyns Festival is a two-day celebration of the start of summer – with craft beer, world food and live music, set in the magnificent grounds of Ashlyns School, in Berkhamsted.

The festival kicks off with our VIP Cinema Evening, with The Rex Cinema's James Hannaway introducing the critically-acclaimed and award-winning film, 'The Son of Rambow' (starring Will Poulter – 'The Revenant', 'Maze Runner') which was filmed at Ashlyns School and around Berkhamsted.

The festival continues into day two with a fantastic line-up of forty quality craft beers from over five local breweries, a wide range of food from local suppliers, and live music on two stages. There's also plenty for families with younger children to enjoy in our special Family Area – from storytelling and games, to workshops and entertainment.

This fantastic event offers the chance to bring the whole community together – and to raise a glass in support of our local secondary school and the wider community facilities.

So don't miss the opportunity to be part of this exciting and new festival, listen to great music, taste new food and beer, and have fun with family and friends.
