

Dear Year 5 Chestnut class,

I have loved hearing from so many of you, thank you for taking the time to email me! It is a joy to read about how you are all working hard, trying your best and enjoying the home learning tasks! I also love looking at your work and seeing photos of what you have been doing!

I hope that you enjoy the next set of home learning tasks. I have planned these for a week and then it is the half-term break. Like me I bet lots of you had a holiday booked for half-term. I was really looking forward to going to Devon with my family. Luckily we have been able re-book our trip for next May!

Sylvie and Seve are as happy as ever and enjoying lots of cuddles and some FaceTime with my family! They love all of the attention and Sylvie is continually asking me for dreamies! I have to limit her so that she is not over eating whilst in lockdown!

Also Nathan inspired me with his email about baking blueberry cupcakes and so I decided to make some! I also thought I would make some flapjacks too -they were delicious with a cup of tea! I have heard that lots of you have been baking and I am impressed! I also wanted to master a new skill and so I learnt how to do some coffee art...my first one is a heart! When I write my next letter I am hoping to have mastered another...watch this space!

I hope that you enjoyed the bank holiday weekend and I bet some of you celebrated the VE day anniversary! On my road everyone decorated their windows in red, white and blue and had picnics on their front lawns! It was great!

I continue to clap for the NHS and carers on a Thursday evening - I feel so grateful! My brother sent me this picture of him working at Stoke Mandeville hospital. It made me proud. He said it's incredibly hot and hard to work wearing so much protective equipment but he is pleased that he can help so many people.

When I read your lock down poems I was proud of how thoughtful, kind and caring you are all being. We will look back on this time and remember what we all had to do.

Please remember to take care and stay safe and hopefully I will see you all again soon!

In the mean time I look forward to hearing from you!

You can email me on: amy.orr@greenway.herts.sch.uk.
