

Narrative: Desert Island

Your boat has sunk and you are trapped on a deserted island. You have to build a shelter and find food to survive. You explore the island and discover something extremely valuable. What is it?

Think about:

- Title
- Orientation or introduction
- The types of characters and setting
- The complication or problem
- The sequence or series of events
- Resolution or conclusion – how the story will end

Remember to:

- plan your story;
- write in sentences;
- focus on your spelling, punctuation, grammar and paragraphs;
- check your spelling and edit your writing when you have finished.
